

TBF 2023 CONCERTS

THE CHORALE THROUGH THE AGES

Wyatt Smith, organ

Friday, July 28, 7:30 pm

Christ Episcopal Church, Tacoma

Internationally-acclaimed organist and harpsichordist, Wyatt Smith explores the use of the chorale in music by Bach, Johann Pachelbel, Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Brenda Portman, Kristina Langlois, Pamela Ruiter-Feentstra, and Christa Rakich in beautiful Christ Episcopal Church, Tacoma..

BACH IN CAMERA

Erin Calata mezzo soprano

Tracy Doyle, flute

Saturday, July 29, 7:30 pm

Kilworth Memorial Chapel, University of Puget Sound

Bach and friends in a chamber setting! Flautist Tracy Doyle and mezzo-soprano Erin Calata, and friends perform chamber music by Bach and others including Bach's Flute Sonata in E minor, Bach Cantata 170, and the newly discovered Sonata No. IV in D Major by Anna Bon di Venezia.

THE HEART OF BACH

Steven Zopfi, conductor

TBF Chorus and Orchestra

Sunday, July 30, 7:30 pm

Kilworth Memorial Chapel, University of Puget Sound

Join us for the Festival Finale as the TBF Choir and Orchestra in a program that features music for the heart Music includes Bach's Cantatas #61 and #150, Caroline Shaw's innovative To the Hands, and Marques Garrett's powerful My Heart Be Brave in the wonderful acoustic of Kilworth Memorial Chapel.

Admission: $20 adults/$15 seniors, children, military. Tickets may be purchased at the door or at www.tacomabachfestival.org.

